FOREWORD

The Senior class of 1946 presents this annual to you with the hope that it will ever be a means of recalling to mind the good times the student body had in the school year 1945-46. May we be able to spend all our life as profitable as we have this year. To all our teachers we thank you for all your extra hours of preparation to make us better men and women. May the Dripping Springs School grow larger and better each year and may the spirit of the student body never weaken.

DEDICATION

IN AS MUCH AS WE DEDICATED OUR BOOK LAST YEAR TO ALL THE BOYS SERVING IN THE ARMED FORCES, AND NOW THAT THE WAR IS OVER AND MOST OF THE BOYS HAVE RETURNED HOME, WE WISH TO DEDICATE THIS BOOK TO JAMES BRUMLEY, ALFRED STRACKBEIN, I. J. WALKER, COLVIN WATSON, RICHARD WHITEHEAD, AND GAYLON HARBER WHO PAID THE SUPREME SACRIFICE FOR OUR COUNTRY. THEY WILL NEVER RETURN BUT THEIR MEMORY WILL BE WITH US ALWAYS.

SENIORS

At the beginning of this school term we, the Senior class, had seven members. During the first semester we gained two new members making a total of nine Seniors by mid-term.

On October 5, 1945, the Seniors entertained the High School at a party in the High School auditorium.

The Seniors were 100% in donating to the Community Chest Fund, Red Cross, and Tuberculosis Fund.

The highlights of our Senior year were three plays, "Mama's Baby Boy," "Mitzi Mixes In," and "Alibi Bill."

Our class had the honor of editing the second school annual.

We enjoyed the Junior-Senior banquet very much.

We Seniors appreciate the help and companionship of our sponsor, Supt. Herring.

THE CRY

We, the staff of "The Tiger Cry", take this opportunity to thank everyone who has helped to make our school paper a success during this school term. We especially thank the business men of Dripping Springs for their support.
